

NEPONSET ROOFS

ROLL ROOFINGS

When you buy roofing be sure you get the best roofing made. It costs but a little more than "hurry-up" roofing. Measured by the years of service it gives, NEPONSET Paroid is dollars and cents economy. Two million square feet of Paroid made good at Panama. Paroid is used by the United States Department of Agriculture. Paroid is used as roofing and siding on thousands of barns, cribs, poultry houses, garages, and homes. For more than twenty years Paroid has been protecting cattle, crops, equipment, and homes from rain and sleet, sun and snow—at lowest cost. Slate-surfaced, red and green.

Here is the line of roll roofings made by BIRD & SON, Inc.:

NEPONSET Paroid Roofing, gray, and red and green slate-surfaced.
American Ready Roofing, smooth and slate-surfaced.
Granitized Roofing, green mineral surfaced.

BIRD & SON, Inc. (Established 1795) East Walpole, Mass.

A. E. Counsell & Son

ST. JOHNSBURY Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dudley of Lowell, Mass., have been guests of Mrs. D. W. Fales this week.

Mrs. L. N. Smythe, Mrs. W. D. Pearl, Mrs. B. D. Ruggles, Mrs. Ed. Doty and Ed. Smythe went to Bennington Friday to attend a meeting of the Eastern Star.

A. E. Counsell and Son have sold this week seven ensilage cutters during the fair.

Charlie Miles of Montpelier is calling on old friends this week.

Mrs. Eva Dunn of Cabot spent a couple of days of this week with her niece, Mrs. Florence LaCrosse.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harvey and daughter, Anna, have been entertaining a family gathering at their home for the past week last Tuesday evening a dinner was given in their honor. The guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Miner from Amesbury, Mass., Mrs. Walter A. Pierce of Boston, Mrs. Horace E. White and daughter, Thelma, of New Haven, Conn., Mrs. Carroll Hubbell of New Haven, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harvey and daughter, Ruth, of New Haven, Conn.

The Square Circle, Eva Ducloux, hostess, had an evening of guessing games at the Club House, Thursday. Eight girls were present.

Mrs. Howard Blossom of Barre is spending a few days in town.

Mrs. Lucy Goss has spent the summer here among friends and relatives, returning to her home in White Plains, N. Y., today.

Cecil Gilman of the third grade at Portland street school, was run into and severely shaken up by a bicyclist who was riding on the sidewalk. The boy was attended by a physician but no bones were found broken. A complaint was made to the police regarding boys riding bicycles on the sidewalk.

Mr. and Mrs. James Connelly have returned to Fall River, Mass., after a week's visit with Mrs. A. D. Streeter.

Dick Newton is confined to the house this week.

Miss Ruth Bigelow of Brattleboro and Miss Betty Burbank of Montpelier have been the guests of Miss Mary Dinsmore for the past week.

Mrs. Horace White of Westville, Conn., is visiting relatives in town.

Ray Bailey is able to be out again after a short illness.

Mrs. Harry Marden of West Medford, Mass., returned to her home Saturday, after spending the week with her mother, Mrs. A. K. Johnson.

Mrs. George Parker of Berlin, N. H., is with her mother, Mrs. William Nute.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Menut, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Beck and Pauline Gordon Garfield has accepted a position at the Dean McCallum store.

Robert Perry Porter of Brattleboro has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Waite and son-in-law, David Porter of St. Johnsbury and has been with friends at Lake Willoughby this week. He returns to his home Monday.

The funeral of Alexander Dunnett will be held at the Old Presbyterian church at South Ryegate at 11 a. m., Friday.

Beck attended the Lancaster Fair last week. Miss Beck enjoyed a 17 minute trip in the airplane with Lieut. Swan.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Holloway and daughter, Helen, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitehill motored the first of the week to Hanover, White River Junction and Bethel where Mr. Holloway visited his cousin, Mrs. Merl Gaskill and returned through the Williamstown Gulf.

Mrs. Bertha Hooker, after a short vacation at F. B. Hooker's, has returned to Laselle Seminary, Auburn, Mass.

F. B. Hooker has moved from 37 Pearl Street to the house recently purchased at 8 Cross street.

Mrs. Laurence Caverly and daughter, Pauline, are visiting her parents. Miss Jennie Gadafee of Andover, home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Brown returned to their home in Turner's Falls, Mass., Saturday. Mr. Brightly came to accompany them home.

Roy Holland and family have returned from a week spent in Rutland.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage on June 26, at Ashland, Kentucky, of Mary R. Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Cox and Julius W. Singleton of Charleston, West Virginia. Mrs. Singleton was graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy in the class of 1913 and has many friends here. She worked for some time in the office of G. C. Frye, and three years ago accepted a position in Charleston. Mr. Singleton is Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Story, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Story and son, Gerald, of Concord, N. H., are guests of Mrs. G. W. Story.

Mrs. May Smith of Pike, N. H., spent the week end with her brother, Elmore Wadleigh.

William E. Mills, of the class of 1917 of St. Johnsbury Academy, and now a Junior at Harvard College, is in Julesburg, Colorado, where he has spent the larger part of his vacation at work in the wheatfields. He will return about September 15 to his home in Wadsworth, Vt., and thence to Cambridge for the opening of college.

Miss Thelma White of Westville, Conn., is spending a few days with Miss Lillian Garfield of Pleasant St.

Miss Beatrice Thibault is spending her vacation in Stratford, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Randall and daughter, Madeline, returned Saturday from Boston.

Mrs. Cora E. Coland returned today from attending her sister's wedding last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drew of North Danville spent Sunday at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Holtham of Sutton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Coates Sunday.

Miss Hazel Vance is gaining slowly from her recent illness at Brightlook hospital.

Edward Asselin has returned from New York and Boston.

Mrs. Martha C. Bailey and Mrs. Rogers Millet of Nashua, N. H., are visiting their mother, Mrs. Amy Clark.

The union preparatory service of the North and South churches will be held in the North church vestry this evening at 7:30 with an address by Dr. Poole.

A daughter was born Sept. 8 to Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Grady.

Miss Crosby Carpenter is spending her vacation in Springfield, Mass., and Hartford, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stuart, Jr., and two sons have returned to their home in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Mrs. Albert Nelson and son, Robert, of Woodville, were guests of The Fairbanks-Morse Name-Plate for August contains a story by Charles H. Horton of the lumbering operations in the Vermont and New Hampshire woods where most of the 3,000,000 feet of lumber that is annually used in the manufacture of Fairbanks scales is produced. The article is accompanied by four illustrations of cutting the timber in the woods.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Golberg and family of Portland street leave tonight for atwelve day trip to Boston and vicinity.

Frank Scott of Boston is here visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blodgett on Spring St.

Mrs. Benjamin Tilton of Morrisville is here visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Helen Stearns has gone to Bristol, Ct., where she has accepted a position to teach the coming year. Her mother, Mrs. George Stearns, accompanied her to remain with her for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Blackburn of Manchester who has been visiting his sister, Miss Evelyn Blackburn, have returned home.

L. N. Smythe, Ed. Smythe and family and Mrs. Marion Spear spent Sunday with Mrs. Smythe at Rumney, N. H.

Exhibitors Trade Review: "Sex", of which Louise Glaum is the star, is a lavish, arresting and at times startling piece of entertainment. This picture will make the American public "sit up and take notice". A good story with a highly original twist. The settings are lavish and in harmony with the general theme of the picture and it is evident that expense meant not a thing with the producers. Beautiful gowns and women dazzle the eye and present one glittering spectacle after another. The picture is an epic in luxury. Last showing at the Globe tonight.

Mrs. Edith Burbank and daughter, Miss Helen Burbank of Montpelier are guests of the Misses Day of Boynton Avenue.

Mrs. A. B. Osborne of Erie, Pa., is the guest of Miss Helen C. Stevens.

Mrs. Harriet B. Ide of Morrisville was in town on Tuesday on her way to Derby where she is to teach.

James Leatherbee of Boston was a business visitor in town Wednesday.

Mrs. C. H. Davis of Newport visited Mrs. Charles Severance Wednesday.

Mrs. John Morrill and Cora Curtis have returned home after two weeks' visit in New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

Miss Anna and Marion Corley visited in Barton Thursday.

Miss Cornelia Horton who has been visiting Miss Francis Davis returned today by auto to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Butterfield, Mrs. Mary Pike and Mrs. R. C. Cramer of Derby Line were in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Leon Trino and son were in Newport over Labor Day.

Mrs. J. A. Rouse, Misses Grace and Florence Rouse returned from the Butterfield camp at Lake Park in Lake Memphremagog Tuesday.

Mrs. Walter Mertz and sons, Walter and Stuart, who have been spending the summer at the home of Mrs. Mertz's father, Harry M. Day, have returned to their home in Wayne, Pa.

Miss Florence Rouse is home from a vacation spent at Derby Line with her sister, Miss Sue Rouse.

Miss Maude Marshall has gone to Springfield, Mass., to take a position.

Mrs. Mark Cooney, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. I. G. Marshall, has gone to Springfield, Vt., to visit her husband's relatives.

Mrs. N. A. Mudgett and Mrs. H. Waite have returned from Boston with a full line of millinery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tilton of Danville has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Guy R. Clifford.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie S. Campbell leave soon for California to make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Sargent have purchased their furniture and will occupy the tenement vacated by them at No. 2 Washington Avenue.

Miss Pauline and Merton Lynds and friends from Marshfield were in town Tuesday for the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Garney of Fitchburg, Mass., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Gilman.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gilman of Winnemucca, Nevada, are visiting his brothers, Dan T. and Fred D. Gilman. This is their first visit here in 10 years.

William P. White, Mayor of Lawrence, Mass., was a visitor at the fair Tuesday.

The many friends of W. H. Young are glad to learn that he is now at Newburyport, N. H., where he is superintendent of the Newburyport Water Works. He is at present on a sabbatical leave over his St. Johnsbury business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Young are here for a week, making up their household.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Morse of Lexington, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Brown Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Boynton and daughter who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Boynton of Summer street for the last three weeks have returned to their home in East Braintree, Mass.

May Jane Carrier is taking a three weeks' vacation from her work at the Telephone Office and has gone to Norwich and Barre to visit her brother, Arthur Carrier.

Mrs. Charles Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Farrington of Walden spent Wednesday in town.

Mrs. Carrie Russell of Barre is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Sam Merchant of Boston is here to spend two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Beck.

Mrs. James Beck is home from five weeks spent with her daughter, Mrs. Sam Merchant at Boston.

Mrs. Leonard has begun work as district nurse.

Miss Josephine Howe of Burlington is visiting friends in town.

WALDEN

Amos W. Scott passed away at his late home in Walden, Thursday, p. m., Sept. 2. He had been in feeble health for several years and had been confined to the house for the past year. He was born in Greensboro, May 9, 1841. He was a veteran of the civil war, serving one year and eight months in the 3rd battery light brigade, Vt. volunteers. He married in 1860, Jennie Gould of Walden and to them were born four children, two of whom died in infancy. Two sons died in young manhood. His wife died about 1880.

In 1886 he married Mrs. Mary Ann Perkins who survives him and tenderly and faithfully cared for him in his failing health and especially during the last year of almost helplessness.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

The Scotts were a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

Mr. Scott was a kind neighbor, esteemed by all who knew him, always having a kind word and smile for all whom he met, kindness was his characteristic trait. He was a member of the Legislature of 1866 from Walden and a faithful member of the Methodist church and a constant attendant while his health permitted, and a member of the official board at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the church Sunday at 10 a. m., and was largely attended.

EAST BARNET

Henry Leach of Pike, N. H., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emery.

Mrs. Oliver Amell has been spending a few days in Bradford. Visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Champney.

Mrs. Margaret Eason of Falmouth was the guest of Mrs. W. J. McGill and Miss Jessie McGill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McGill and daughter, Jessie, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dean McCallum at St. Johnsbury Wednesday.

Miss Anna Hoffman of Lyndon has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Helen Gamell.

Henry Gamell of Newport spent Sunday at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Benjamin and two sons and maid of Salem, Mass., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bonnette.

Miss Jessie McGill returned to her home in Boston, Mass., Sunday after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McGill.

Mrs. Ray Matthews and son spent Thursday at Abner Center with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Higgins.

John Lee of Greenfield, Mass., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Emily Blandin.

Mrs. S. W. Miller of St. Johnsbury spent Wednesday with Mrs. S. H. Jewell.

Mrs. Emma Kendall and Mrs. Lizzie Kendall visited friends in St. Johnsbury Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Roy, Mrs. Helen Gamell and Mrs. H. C. Wormwood attended Rebekah meeting at West Barnet Tuesday evening.

Clyde Healey of Insubury spent the week end with his brother, H. A. Healey.

Mrs. S. H. Jewell spent Saturday in St. Johnsbury visiting friends.

Mrs. C. A. Ellett has been confined to the house for a few days with a bad knee and ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch of Lisbon, N. H., spent Sunday with Mrs. Lizzie Kendall.

Bertram Kendall is working on the section for Clarence Hilliard.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moore of Hanover, N. H., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore.

Miss Alice Nelson of Boston, Mass., has been spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd. Amell and children motored to Bradford Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Champney.

Patric Perin went Saturday to his school in Orono, Me.

Mr. Andrews and wife and four children, also Mrs. Andrews' father, Dr. L. N. White, who is 88 years of age have moved here on the Sunny Slope farm, from Centerville, Missouri. Mr. Andrews' plans to buy part interest in the farm with Mrs. Nell.

WEST BARNET

The electrical storm Tuesday evening struck the barn at Thomas Stevens burning it to the ground.

William Faris and family are rejoicing over the birth of a baby boy. Congratulations.

The Priscilla Club met with Mrs. F. H. Laird Thursday.

Mrs. Hattie Woods was a guest at James Blain's Wednesday.

Mrs. Florence Frizzell of St. Johnsbury visited friends here last week.

Mrs. Abbie Lamphere visited her niece in Danville, Thursday.

Mrs. Jennie Blandin and Mrs. Blandin of East Barnet visited Emma Hastie Friday.

Lex Morrison and Miss Irene Tappin of South Ryegate were married at her home Wednesday evening. Congratulations.

Mrs. Sleeper and daughter of Concord, N. H., are visiting at Nelson Davidson's.

Mrs. Willie Whitehill and daughter of Boston and Thomas McDowell of New York were guests at Davidson's, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson were in Wells River Friday.

Miss Jessie Hastie is working at D. A. Blain's.

WEST BURKE

Alice Townsend has returned to New York City.

Mrs. John Cole who died at St. Johnsbury was brought here for burial Saturday.

Marjorie Hall and Ruth Leach return to their school in Boston this week.

Warner Brown who recently sold his farm to Dwight Cheney is moving into the Bartlett tenement.

Mrs. Kate Towle who fell and broke her hip while at St. Johnsbury was taken to Brightlook hospital. It was a bad accident and she has the sympathy of her many friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Lucian Chappell is visiting her daughter at Sheffield.

Mrs. Archie Bailey and Thelma have been visiting at Piermont, N. H.

Mr.